

REALLY FORGIVEN

Dear Friend,

I know that living in this country you probably can't get away from church or God. Perhaps you get annoyed and frustrated because it seems like all the churches are full of phonies. You probably don't want to be bothered and just want to worship God in your own way.

I don't blame you. I feel the same way sometimes; however, I also realize that there are no fake $4 bills. People never imitate something that is not real. For instance, you might find a fake $5 bill, but this is because there is a real $5 bill. So, even though you may become frustrated with church and people who call themselves Christians, please realize that there are some real Christians out there.

Now, they may be few, but they are out there, so I want to encourage you. Don't let the majority sway your opinion of the church and God. He is real. He wants to get to know you and you to know Him. Why not give Him a chance to work in your life and see how different your life will be with Him?

Even as a Christian, I used to think, that one day I still was going to have to face God and give an account for every bad thought, every sin I have committed, and every wicked thing I have ever done. I recall thinking of how embarrassed I would feel when I stand before God and all the things I ever did wrong would be brought up before Him. What would my parents say and all the other people who knew me. I imagined how they would look at me in heaven and think, "You did that! I can't believe you did those things!"

As you can probably tell, I was somewhat dreading that experience when I get to heaven. But, as I started to learn the Bible, I started to realize that I am not going to have to feel afraid and embarrassed when I stand before God. That is because my sins are all covered by Jesus' blood, and that is why He died for me. He wanted to forgive me of my sins and cast them away as far as the east is from the west. He wanted to drop them into the sea of forgetfulness.

So, now I have to tell you that I truly rejoice, not only because my sins are forgiven, but because they are not going to be recalled in heaven again. Praise God for Jesus!

If you would like to know how to have your sins forgiven and have a life of peace here on this earth (which is possible in spite of all the chaos in this world), call on God, read your Bible, do what it says, and fellowship with Christians.

If this tract has been an encouragement to you, I would love to hear from you. Call me at (407) 731-9998, or email me at info@speaktomeradio.com.
